

Biography – Andrew William Marshall, Sr. (Andy)

Andy is a retired 28-year employee of Lockheed Martin and its predecessor companies in Orlando, FL. He retired in 2012 as an International Program Manager with prior assignments as a Program Contracts Manager. His experience with Lockheed Martin included over twenty years of international contract and program management involving some twenty-five international customers. Prior to his association with Lockheed Martin, Andy was employed at the US Army Aviation Center, Ft. Rucker, AL, supporting and managing US Army Aviation Testing and Training activities.

Andy holds a BS in Accounting from Troy University and an MBA in Procurement and Program Management from Florida Institute of Technology. He served as a national officer in the National Contracts Management Association, holding its Fellow distinction, and is an FAA certified airframe and power-plant mechanic.

Andy has spent hundreds of hours over the last twenty years researching his family tree and is an enthusiastic deer hunter.

Andy is an active member of the Headland, AL Lions Club involved in all of its service and fund raising projects, one of which is the annual pigeon race where some 400 pigeons are raced over 200 miles with the winning pigeon sponsors being awarded large pigeon trophies. He has served his club as Director, 1st Vice President, President and has served as a District Zone Chairperson and Second Vice District Governor and First Vice District Governor for Lions Clubs Multiple District 34C.

Under his leadership as Club President, the Headland Club was awarded the Club Excellence Award and was recognized for 100%-member contribution to LCIF and for funding an LCIF Melvin Jones Fellowship. Andy graduated from the Advanced Lions Leadership Institute in Houston, TX in November, 2016 and attended the US/Canada Forum in 2017. He was elected as District Governor for program year 2018-2018 on March 10, 2018 at the District Convention.

Andy and his wife Glenda have been married over 53 years, have two adult children, five grandchildren and are active members of the First Baptist Church, Headland, AL.

Andy Marshall
1407 State Highway 134 W
Headland, AL 36345
407.920.6358
andym0407@aol.com

