

Charles (Charlie) T. Wigglesworth grew up on a farm in Virginia. In March 1971, Charlie enlisted in the United States Army. His service carried him from company level all the way to working for the Chief of Staff of the Army. He attained the rank of First Sergeant before being appointed on 16 May 1984 to Chief Warrant Officer Two. Charlie retired from active duty as a CW5 on 31 March 2011 after 40 years of active duty.

Charlie joined the Daleville Lions in September of 2013. He has served as Second Vice President, Club President, and Club Membership chair in the Daleville Lions Club. At the District 34C level, he served as a Zone chair. He is currently serving as the Second Vice District Governor of District 34C.

Charlie is the immediate past President of the Fort Rucker Chapter of Military Officers Association of America and is a former Executive Director of the US Army Warrant Officers Association. Charlie is married to PDG Claudia Wigglesworth and former Mayor of Daleville, AL. They have two sons, LTC John Wigglesworth, USAF Reserve JAG Officer in San Antonio, TX, and Wayne Wigglesworth (former Army SSG), currently a helicopter mechanic at Fort Rucker, AL. They have six grandchildren.
